

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law protection. I no longer have calls at dinner time. My time at home has greatly improved because of no calls. I use to get 4-5 calls a night, now I only recieve 1 unwanted call a week.